Dear William

173 Will it be consistent with your views & convenience to insert the enclosed Notice of Theological Convention - to be held during 1866 - in the Liberator? If so - you will oblige many of the friends of such a movement by inserting it.
I have talked & corresponded with many about it. All whom I have consulted, are anxious for such a convention. The Theology of this has ever been the Boatile of Slavery & War. A convention called on purpose to expose its immaturity, & inhumanity - it is thought would do much good - different parts of that Theology being previously assigned to different persons to Report upon at the Convention, i.e., the Unity & One, Universal Atonement to another; Miraculous Conception to another; the Authority of the Publ-the foundation of all, to another, Heaven & Hell to another; &c. &c.

Dear William! I cannot express the feeling of sadness & dereliction that comes over me as the discontinuance of the Liberator approaches. It has been my Home. It dies, & my Home goes with it. My old Home, my dear, noble & enabling Home. If you can spare me a short space in the last Number, Dec. 29th, you will do me a great kindness. I want to say in the last Number a farewell word, to bid the best & truest friend of my life & for 35 years & my truest & divinest ~~Teacher~~ friend for external teachers, a final adieu. I will prepare & send it to you next week.

Dear Friend! I am somewhat tired up. After the engagements of this month are fulfilled, I shall rest & recuperate during January & February. I am to be in Essex Co. till after Christmas.

I could not see you to welcome you Home as I come through Boston on Tuesday. My spirit was with you in all your trials & troubles in your recent tour. I heard of you by letter to my self from friends in several places - beside, having your own letter, read by dear, noble Frank. God bless you & yours
Henry C. Wright
